COLORADO LEGISLATURE

PARTIAL REPORT

(House Joint Resolution No. 11, 1953)

AN INDEX

CHILDREN'S LAWS OF COLORADO

1953

In accordance with the provisions of House Joint Resolution No. 11 (Pellet), the Legislative Council submits herewith a partial report relating to laws affecting children in Colorado. The broader nature of the resolution cannot be considered by the Legislature until the Fortieth General Assembly meets in January, 1955, and a report covering this aspect will not be submitted until that time. However, the initial phase of the problem, the preparation of an index of all statutes now applying to children, has been completed and a report thereon is submitted herewith at the Second Regular Session of the Thirty-Ninth General Assembly.

This index lists by 13 major subject titles and 97 subtitles the laws of Colorado pertaining to children. In addition, there is presented a bibliography of background material relating to preceding efforts in Colorado in the interest of improving the Child Law, and the significant work done in several other states in this regard.

It will be noted that statutory citations are listed both for the Colorado Revised Statutes (as submitted to the 1953 General Assembly) and also the 1935 Colorado Statutes Annotated. Thus it is felt that persons will be enabled to use the index with either set of laws.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

BACKGROUND MATERIAL

Denver Area Welfare Council. Family and Child Welfare Division Planning Committee. Report of the Children's Law Committee. Denver, Colorado, Denver Area Welfare Council, 1948. 22 p.

An interesting example of the work done by a citizen's voluntary group.

Lundberg, Emma O. State Commissions for the Study and Revision of Child-Welfare Laws. Washington, D. C., U. S. Children's Bureau, 1924. 156 p.

Even though this pamphlet was published in 1924, it remains the most instructive of all publications in the organization and development of work methods for the study and revision of child-welfare laws.

Smith, Marie C. The Development of Public Child Welfare for Dependent and Neglected Children in Colorado. Denver, the Author, 1946. 63 p.

A thesis written by the present director of the Colorado Division of Child Welfare. It contains the most complete information available on the history of the development of child welfare programs in Colorado.

WORK OF THE COLORADO CHILDREN'S CODE COMMISSION, 1948.

Pike, Ruth E. Colorado's Laws Affecting Children. Unit I - Adoption. Boulder, University of Colorado Extension Division, 1946. 81 p.

This report was prepared for the Subcommittee on Courts, Procedures and Statutory Revision of the Interim Committee of the Thirty-fifth General Assembly, and was accepted by the Children's Code Commission as the first unit in its study of Colorado's Child Welfare laws.

Pike, Ruth. Colorado's Laws Affecting Children. Unit II - Indenture.
Boulder, University of Colorado Extension Division, 1948. 25 p.

This report was an important factor in bringing about the repeal of Colorado's apprenticeship law by the General Assembly in 1949.

Colorado. Children's Code Commission. Colorado Laws Relating to Guardianship. Unit III, Sections I and II. Denver, Colorado Children's Code Commission, 1948. No paging.

This report pulls together all the laws pertaining to guardianship and organizes them, but makes no attempt to evaluate the laws or make suggestions for revision.

Pike, Ruth E. Colorado's Laws Affecting Children. Unit IV - Incorporation, Licensing and Inspection. Boulder, University of Colorado Extension Division, 1948. 75 p.

The author reports the findings of the Colorado Children's Code Commission and discusses good points of similar laws in other states.

PART III
BIBLIOGRAPHY (continued)

Colorado. Children's Code Commission. Report on the Work of the Children's Code Commission of the State of Colorado as Established by Legislative Enactment of the Thirty-sixth General Assembly. Denver, Colorado Children's Code Commission, 1949. 44 p.

This final report covers the work of both the Children's Code Commission and the work of the group which continued as the Children's Code Committee, following the court decision which dissolved the commission.

WORK OF CHILDREN'S CODE COMMISSIONS IN OTHER STATES

Illinois. Child Welfare Commission. Report of the Child Welfare Commission to the 65th General Assembly. Springfield, Illinois. Child Welfare Commission, 1949. 122 p.

This report is a follow-up of a study made by the Illinois Child Welfare Commission in 1943 for the purpose of investigating the necessity of consolidating the child welfare functions of the State.

Kansas. Juvenile Code Commission. Report and Recommendations of the Kansas Juvenile Code Commission. Topeka, Kansas, Juvenile Code Commission, 1949. Parts I and II.

A good example of a job "well-done" in the examination of the Children's laws of a state. Actual bills are presented, with changes in the old law indicated.

Missouri. Children's Code Commission. A report of the Missouri Children's Code Commission. Jefferson City, Missouri, Children's Code Commission, 1946. 138 p.

Another good example of a study of the "conflicting, obsolete, or otherwise undesirable" child welfare laws of a state. This Missouri Committee also made recommendations for the correction of such laws.

Ohio. Children's Code Commission. A Summary of the Recommendations of the Ohio Children's Code Commission. Columbus, Ohio, Children's Code Commission, 1942. 54 p.

A well-organized report with specific recommendations for proposed legal changes of importance. Deletions proposed for purposes of clarification and changes of terminology are omitted from this report. They were submitted in another report which was not published for general distribution.

The cooperation of the State Department of Public Welfare on the preparation of this Bibliography is gratefully acknowledged.
